

Wailing Junk Disciple Pledge:

(if you choose to sign the pledge, please initial at least one of the points below)

1. I will do what I can to help build community. Initial: _____
2. I will tell one other person all about the Wailing Junk Symphony for the Most High and I will sign the WJS electronic mailing list. Initial: _____
3. I will work for peace: peace between religions, peace between nations, peace between races and ethnicities, peace between genders and generations, peace in myself, and peace between all things that claim to be separate. Initial: _____
4. I will explore the sounds of junk and found objects by hitting them in some way, unless it appears dangerous or injurious. Initial: _____
5. I will work to fight greed, misrepresentation, exploitation and lies by holding people in positions of power accountable to their actions, by telling the truth when I see it, and by defending basic human rights for all peoples (including access to clean food and water, shelter and safety, privacy and freedom of expression, and access to public, non-segregated education). Initial: _____
6. I will believe in myself. Initial: _____
7. I will donate a musical instrument and/or a “junk” instrument to WJS, which will go to children in underserved communities (i.e. The Boys and Girls Club of Oakland, the San Francisco Community Music Center) This donation is tax-deductible. Initial: _____

Signature

Date

Printed Name

Email (optional)

Having initialed at least one of the above pledge points, you will get two dollars off the next WJS show. Just leave this pledge with us, take a copy for yourself, and give us your name at the next show.